

Holland Receives Three Quest for Quality Awards for Performance Excellence in 2015

August 12, 2015

HOLLAND, Mich., Aug. 12, 2015 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Holland has been recognized for performance excellence in 2015 with three Quest for Quality awards from Logistics Management magazine. This marks the 30th consecutive year that Holland has earned a Quest for Quality award. This year, Holland was honored with awards in the South/South Central Regional LTL Carriers and Midwest/North Central Regional LTL Carriers categories, as well as the Expedited Motor Carriers category.

"Since this program's inception, Holland has not missed receiving a Quest for Quality award," said Scott Ware, president of Holland. "That record speaks volumes to the character of Holland service and our consistent, unwavering dedication to excellence. We owe our success to the hard work and commitment of our employees and the 'customer first' culture we live by, always upholding the highest quality of service."

Logistics Management magazine began its Quest for Quality awards program in 1985. Today, it is widely considered to be the single most significant and reliable measure of customer satisfaction and service excellence in the industry. Award winners are chosen based upon the evaluations of thousands of transportation and logistics decision-makers from all over the country. Survey respondents rate providers on a number of objective service metrics such as on-time performance, value, information technology, customer service, equipment and operations.
