Holland Named a 2015 Regional Carrier of the Year by Walmart

HOLLAND, Mich., April 11, 2016 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Holland is proud to have been selected as one of Walmart's "2015 Regional Carrier of the Year." Winners were selected by Walmart's transportation executive team based on a number of factors, including outstanding service, effective communication, excellent safety standards, and innovative solutions. Walmart awards the designation each year to companies that provide support to the retailer's Walmart stores, Sam's Club locations and distribution centers located throughout the continental United States.

"We are grateful for every customer recognition, whether it's a simple thank-you letter from the owner of a single store or a national award presented by the president of a large organization with locations across the country," said Scott Ware, president of Holland. "But of course we are particularly proud and excited to be recognized by the world's largest retailer. Credit for this honor goes to every Holland employee who played a part in providing this important customer with outstanding service and safe, reliable deliveries."

Holland provides freight transportation services to a wide variety of clients but has a special focus on retailers. Holland Retail Service helps turn the client's supply chain into a competitive advantage, helping to get products on the shelves damage-free, with greater speed and reliability. Whether using standard or guaranteed delivery options, Holland is the preferred transportation provider for the country's leading retailers.
