Item 5. Other Events

On June 30, 1994, Yellow Corporation (the company) announced that the union associates of its Preston Trucking Company subsidiary had approved a plan that would reduce wages in return for a share of profits if certain operating results are achieved. The associates, members of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, voted to approve a wage reduction program that would lessen pay by seven percent in 1994, five percent in 1995 and return to standard contract wages in 1996. This plan replaced a one year, nine percent wage reduction approved in March 1993, shortly after Preston Trucking was acquired by the company.

The company indicated that the temporary reduction in wages was necessary to help complete a financial turnaround of Preston Trucking. The vote on the wage reduction provides Preston Trucking with additional time to implement permanent changes and complete the turnaround.

Preston Corporation, including Preston Trucking Company, Saia Motor Freight Line and Smalley Transportation Company, was purchased by Yellow Corporation in February 1993. Preston Trucking is a Maryland-based regional less-than-truckload carrier serving the Northeast and Central states regions. They had operating revenue of $397 million in 1993.
