Reddaway Again Named Top Regional Carrier by GlobalTranz

TUALATIN, Ore., April 17, 2018 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- (NASDAQ:YRCW) - Reddaway has been selected by GlobalTranz as its Top Western Regional Carrier for 2017. The GlobalTranz award program recognizes suppliers for exceptional performance and quality in several critical areas: overall operational excellence and customer service, price competitiveness and flexibility, strategic partnerships and market leadership, and technology innovation and new service offerings. This award, previously earned by Reddaway five times, confirms the carrier's status as the premier next-day and two-day delivery service provider in the western states.

"GlobalTranz has a broad base of carriers to choose from, so there is a lot of competition to be named as their top carrier," said Bob Stone, President of Reddaway. "It's extremely exciting to have been selected as the very best carrier in their Western Region. Our thanks to GlobalTranz for including us among their carriers and for singling Reddaway out as the best in the West. And thanks to everyone at Reddaway for the effort it took to earn this important customer award."

Reddaway previously earned this recognition in 2009, 2011, 2013, 2014 and 2015.
