

YRC Worldwide Clarifies Bank Amendment Terms

* Capacity under the revolving credit facility stays at $950 million * Revolver reserve originally established in the February 12 amendment remains

OVERLAND PARK, Kan., June 18 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- YRC Worldwide Inc. (Nasdaq: YRCW) today clarified that the amendment it finalized on June 17, 2009 to its revolving credit facility with its lenders has the same terms in regards to total liquidity and capacity under the facility that existed prior to yesterday's amendment. The new amendment does give the company immediate access to the escrow funds of $73 million by means of revolver capacity that can be borrowed at any time without approval from the lenders so long as the company's cash is below $150 million. The $150 million is a new maximum of cash and cash equivalents that was mutually agreed to by the company and the lender group and set well above the company's average daily cash usage. The company's total liquidity includes its cash balance in addition to the availability under its credit facilities, which in total was $242 million at May 31, 2009.

"Yesterday's amendment reflects the continued support of our lender group as we further implement our strategic actions both operationally and financially," said Tim Wicks, Executive Vice President and CFO of YRC Worldwide. "We now have immediate access to the escrow funds, which is a month before the original agreement, and there is not an immediate reduction to our capacity."

The company did not pay any fees to the lender group associated with this amendment.
