

Reddaway Recognized for Excellence in Safety by the California Trucking Association

OVERLAND PARK, Kan., April 12, 2010 - Reddaway, a subsidiary of YRC Worldwide Inc. (Nasdaq: YRCW) was honored for its outstanding safety record at the California Trucking Association (CTA) Fleet Safety Awards Banquet held April 7 in Sacramento. The company took third place in the "LTL/General Commodities - Local/Short Haul over 4 Million Miles" Fleet Safety category.

To determine top honorees, CTA safety professionals evaluated trucking companies on specific safety performance criteria including accident frequency; personnel and hiring systems; documented safety policies and procedures; driver-safety training; internal accident handling procedures; and participation in CTA safety activities.

"We have an unwavering commitment to safety at Reddaway and all YRC Worldwide operating companies," said T.J. O'Connor, president - Reddaway. "Ensuring that we're working and driving safely serves as the foundation by which we deliver confidence to one another and our customers each and every day. We are honored to be a member of the California Trucking Association and to be recognized in this capacity."

In 2010, the California Trucking Association entered its 75th year of serving the businesses that operate trucks in California and the companies that provide products and services to those companies. Membership ranges from the self-employed owner-operator to large international motor carriers and truck manufacturers, and everything in between. The CTA's five Policy Committees address legislative and regulatory activities including Truck Safety, Highway Policy and the Environment.
