

YRC Worldwide Congratulates Its Professional Drivers Capturing Top Awards at the 2010 National Truck Driving Championships

OVERLAND PARK, Kan., Aug 10, 2010 /PRNewswire via COMTEX News Network/ -- YRC Worldwide Inc. (Nasdaq: YRCW), is proud to announce that five of its professional drivers captured top awards at this year's National Truck Driving Championships, Aug. 3-7 in Columbus, Ohio. YRC Worldwide sent a team of outstanding professional drivers from its subsidiaries Holland, New Penn, Reddaway and YRC to the annual competition.

"We are extremely proud of all of our professional drivers, who competed this past weekend at the 2010 National Truck Driving Championships," said Mike Smid, president-YRC Inc., and chief operations officer-YRC Worldwide. "We congratulate all drivers at YRC Worldwide for their continued commitment to the industry."

Bruce Quaal, YRC line haul driver from Minnesota has been named the National Champion in the Sleeper Class. Quaal has been in the transportation industry for 19 years and with YRC for the past 16 years, and he has received the 10 Year Million Mile Safe Driver Award from YRC Worldwide.

Will Chrvala, New Penn city driver from Pennsylvania placed second in the 4-Axle Class. Additionally, Mr. Chrvala won the Vehicle Condition Award for pre-trip inspections, an award only given to one driver in the entire competition. Chrvala has been in the transportation industry for the past 37 years and has been with New Penn for the past 8 years. He is a twelve-time Pennsylvania State Champion and two-time National Champion in 1995 and 1998.

Rich Seigle, YRC shuttle driver from Illinois placed third in the 4-Axle Class. Seigle has been in the transportation industry for the past 32 years and has been with YRC for the past 26 years. He is a six-time Illinois State Champion and two-time National Champion in 2002 and 2000. He has received the 2.7 Million Miles Safe Driver Award from YRC and 3.5 Million total miles driven throughout his career with YRC Worldwide.

In addition, YRC driver Andy Smith and Reddaway driver John Van Buren were recognized as part of the Oregon state truck driving championship team, which achieved the honor of highest scoring state team.

The American Trucking Associations (ATA) sponsors the event, also known as the "Super Bowl of Safety," where over 400 drivers compete for national titles in nine vehicle classes of vehicles and the coveted National Grand Champion title. The drivers accumulate points through a written examination, pre-trip inspection test and a skills test.

To compete at the national competition, drivers must be accident-free for the 12 months leading up to the event and place first in their state-level driving championship.
