YRC Worldwide Names Scott D. Ware as President of Holland

OVERLAND PARK, Kan., May 23, 2012 /PRNewswire/ -- YRC Worldwide Inc. (NASDAQ: YRCW) has named Scott D. Ware as president of its Holland subsidiary, a leading provider of next-day regional less-than-truckload (LTL) services. Ware, 51, has 27 years of industry experience and most recently served as vice president of Operations at Holland where he was responsible for the management and execution of major operational initiatives focused on specific performance improvement.

"Scott has been an integral part of the Holland success story for the past five years. As leader of the Operations group, he — along with his team — established Holland as the industry standard, best-in-class leader for the next-day LTL market," said James Welch, chief executive officer of YRC Worldwide.

Prior to joining Holland in 2007, Ware was director of Line Haul Operations at Saia, Inc. He was previously director of Line Haul at Jevic Transportation and prior to that a manager of Freight Flow Operations at Con-way, Inc. He received a Bachelor of Science degree from the University of North Carolina at Charlotte.

"The Holland team delivers industry leading service to their customers every day and they deserve a president who will work alongside them to take the team to the next level," added Welch. "I am proud that Scott will be taking the helm to build on the company's successes."
