

Reddaway is Named 2009 Regional Carrier of the Year by GlobalTranz

OVERLAND PARK, Kan., May 26, 2010 - Reddaway, a subsidiary of YRC Worldwide Inc. (Nasdaq: YRCW) has been named 2009 Regional Carrier of the Year by GlobalTranz, a logistics management firm specializing in carrier, supply chain, and warehouse management.

To determine rankings, GlobalTranz agents and representatives nationwide rated its suppliers based on six key criteria: on-time pickup, on-time delivery, driver courtesy, claims and damages, billing accuracy and customer service.

"An award of this caliber is the highest compliment," said T.J. O'Connor, president - Reddaway. "GlobalTranz is a valued partner and this honor is a direct reflection of our continued commitment to exceptional customer service each and every day."

Founded in 2003, GlobalTranz (www.globaltranz.com) is a leading provider of supply chain management technology, available at www.carrierrate.com, which optimizes the flow and storage of merchandise as goods and materials move within the supply chain.

This is the second time this quarter that Reddaway has received an award for exceptional performance and quality. In April, the company was honored for its outstanding safety record at the California Trucking Association.
